What's new in Elden Ring:

343 Industries has announced a new name for their now-defunct Xbox exclusives, stating it's officially going back to being simply "Halo." The developer says it's "coming to an end in the near future," so hopefully we'll see more of the codenames like "Odin's Reach" and "Chopper" in the future.

I dunno. This was supposed to be announced at E3 but it was just announced at the Spike TV VMAs while Jaime was snogging her makeup artist. $823.50 for an autograph from the beautiful Rachelle Legault.

Look, not everyone is ready for a reboot of a universally loved IP. I can't even get all my old characters into the "Clone Wars" numbered set, let alone the universe.

I swear to god this brings me right back to the 13th episode of Star Trek: The Next Generation where the Enterprise comes across a planet with two Jokers. I miss that episode.

Our friend Kotaku's E3 coverage is wonderful, beautiful, and someone should write about it. It is a epic fantasy nerd's paradise. Go there. You will not be disappointed.

Transcriptional regulation of baboon Fc receptor for IgA (IgA Fc alpha R, Sigma Fc alpha R, CD89) by human protein inhibitors. Immunoglobulin A (IgA) is the predominant immunoglobulin in mucosal secretions but it is also found in sera. IgA can bind to two immunoglobulin superfamily receptors, pIgR and Fc alpha R. It has been shown that normal baboon IgA does not bind to the human Fc alpha R and transfection of the human Fc alpha R cDNA into baboon cells caused them to bind with bovine IgA. Therefore, binding capacity of human Fc alpha R for IgA correlates with transfection of its receptor into baboon cells. Here, we show that the human IgA Fc alpha R cDNA in the presence of human cytomegalovirus (CMV) enhances the expression of human Fc alpha R in a transfection procedure that involves co-culturing the transfected cells with human fibroblasts. Since CMV inhibits apoptosis, it was of interest to examine whether CMV over-expression of Fc alpha R correlated with CMV-mediated apoptosis inhibition. In the presence of CMV, neither apoptosis nor viability of transfectants was influenced. Furthermore, the synthesis of interleukin (IL)-6, IL-8, interferon alpha and beta, growth-related protein-43, Tumour Necrosis Factor alpha (TNF-alpha) and Fas-ligand, the latter of which was determined by RT-PCR, was either not influenced or slightly stimulated by
